

Powell MakerSpace

Membership and Guest Waiver Agreement

You have decided to become a member of Powell MakerSpace, a guest of Powell MakerSpace, or you want to participate in a Powell MakerSpace workshop, class, competition, LAN party, or other event. In doing so, you, being of sound mind and body, voluntarily accept the responsibility and risks involved. Chances are, nothing even remotely harmful will happen to you, but if it does, you look danger squarely in the eye and say, "Bring it." You might be handling a soldering iron, small bits of metal and electronics, chemicals, sharp and pointy things, hot things, stuff that move really fast and other tools of the trade and you agree to use these items for good and not for evil. That means being a generally good person and agreeing not to inflict harm on yourself or anyone else. In legal terms (because our Attorney told us we had to):

You agree that you are voluntarily joining or visiting Powell MakerSpace, or participating in a Powell MakerSpace activity with knowledge of the risks of doing so, such as the risks of injury, property damage, or death resulting from the use of potentially dangerous tools or materials, even if these risks or hazards are unknown to you, and/or the active or passive negligence of Powell MakerSpace, A Wyoming Non Profit Corporation and its respective officers, directors, employees, and agents (collectively, "we" or "us"). You release us from all liability, claims, damage, or demands arising from or related in any way to being a member or guest of Powell MakerSpace or your participation in any Powell MakerSpace activity.

Recordings: There is a chance that we might record events or just goings on (via audio, visual, or audiovisual media). If we do so, you agree to let us use your stunning image and/or voice for any purpose. You release Powell MakerSpace, and its licensees from and waive any claims related to or arising by reason of the making and/or use of any such recordings - or if you were just having a bad hair day that particular day, you can't yell at us
